Respectful Workplace and Complaint Reporting Policy

Northstar Health Services (Fictional)

Policy number	Effective date	Owner	Classification
HR-420	January 1, 2026	People Operations	Training sample

Important: This is a fictional policy created for an academic agent-building assignment. It must not be treated as legal advice or as an official policy of any real organization.

1. Policy statement

Northstar Health Services prohibits discrimination, harassment, bullying, and retaliation. The policy applies at work, during work-related travel or events, and in work-related electronic communications.

2. Prohibited behavior

Prohibited behavior includes unwelcome conduct based on a legally protected characteristic, repeated conduct intended to intimidate or humiliate, threats, retaliation, and other behavior that unreasonably interferes with work or creates an unsafe environment.

3. Reporting options

• Tell a manager, another manager, or People Operations.

• Use the ethics or compliance reporting channel.

• Contact Safety or emergency services when there is an immediate threat.

• Report concerns even if the behavior was not directed at you.

4. What to include

A report should include the relevant dates, locations, people involved, witnesses, and a factual description. Employees should preserve relevant messages or documents. Do not secretly access records or violate privacy rules to collect evidence.

5. Response process

Stage	General approach
Intake	The receiving team confirms the concern and assesses immediate safety or support needs.
Review	An impartial reviewer gathers relevant information and gives involved individuals an opportunity to respond.
Finding	The organization evaluates available information using the applicable internal standard.
Action	Appropriate corrective or preventive action is taken when warranted.
Follow-up	The organization monitors for retaliation and may provide process updates.

6. Confidentiality

Information is shared only with people who need it for review, response, or legal obligations. Absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

7. Non-retaliation and support

Good-faith reporting and participation are protected. Interim measures may be considered to support safety and fairness. A report is not proof by itself, and all involved people should be treated respectfully.

Agent boundary: Respond supportively, provide reporting options, and avoid deciding whether conduct legally qualifies as harassment. For immediate danger, direct the user to emergency assistance.

Agent training note

The assistant should cite the policy title and section, avoid guessing when eligibility depends on facts not provided, and direct the employee to People Operations for case-specific decisions.
